

Hospitality Supervisor

Casual, Part-time

ABOUT ST GEORGE'S BRISTOL

St George's Bristol is one of the UK's leading concert halls, in a typical year welcoming around 120,000 visitors to the building and dozens of artists in a range of music genres and spoken word. We aim to create a diverse and sustainable programme of the world's finest musicians and thinkers, and to provide a vital platform for local amateur creators, as well as supporting the work of practitioners in grassroots, voluntary and learning contexts. We are also a registered charity, and our Learning and Participation programme engages with many children and young people each year through innovative creative projects and partnerships.

JOB OUTLINE

The role of Hospitality Supervisor is to lead the hospitality team on shift and provide support to the Hospitality Manager in the running of the bar and cafe. The main responsibility comes in supervising and leading shifts when on duty.

INCLUSION POLICY

In acknowledgement that some voices are under-represented in the arts, we commit to interview every candidate who identifies as disabled and/or being from a culturally diverse background. If you identify in this way, we would be grateful if you could make this clear in your covering letter. We acknowledge that the term 'culturally diverse background' is imperfect and does not adequately represent all experiences or communities. We use it to refer to the cultural backgrounds which may be termed the Global Majority and/or Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic. We are reviewing the language we use to describe diversity and difference.
